

for my grandnephew, Paxton Leaf

Wagons on the Plains

In many places on the Plains, the prairie grasses were so tall that a horse and rider could be completely hidden. Just the very tops of the covered wagons could be seen moving slowly along the westward trails.

Mary Leaf

Plodding along (♩ = ca. 80)

5

mp Smoke sig - nals in the dis - tance slow - ly rise;

1
5

5

4

White puffs of smoke rise in the air.

9

5

Braves on the bluffs a - bove with know - ing eyes;

13

1 2 3

rit. last time only (♩) Fine

Won - der what they think a - bout them there.