O THOU IN ALL THY MIGHT

GENTLY 17TH CENTURY ENGLISH

1. O thou in all thy might so far, In all thy love so near, Be - yond the range of sun and star, And yet be - side us here, And yet be - side us here.

2. What heart can comprehend thy love
Or searching, find thee out?
Who art within a quickening flame
A presence round about.

3. Yet, though I know thee but in part,
I ask not, Lord, for more.
Enough for me to know thou art,
To love thee, and adore.

JESUS, LORD OF ALL

PRAISE THE LORD OF HEAVEN

PROUDLY

TRADITIONAL ENGLISH

Praise the Lord of heav - en, Praise him in the height,

Praise him all ye an - gels, Praise him stars and light;

Praise him skies and wa - ters Which a - bove the skies;

When his word com - man - ded Migh - ty did a - rise.

2. Praise him fowl and cattle,
Princes and all kings,
Praise him men and maidens,
All created things,
For the name of God
Excellent alone;
On the earth his foot stool,
Over head his throne.

3. Praise him men and maidens
Princes and all kings,
Praise him hills and mountains
All created things,
Heav'n and earth he fashioned
Mighty oceans raised;
This day and forever,
His name shall be praised.
